

COUNTRY MUSIC HALL OF FAME INDUCTEES

ANALYSIS BY BRENDA GUTMAN

COUNTRY MUSIC HALL OF FAME - FACTS

---

- Launched in 1961, plaques located at the Tennessee State Museum
- Moved to its own building on Music Row in 1967
- Building was given a 37-million-dollar remodel in 2001
- 140 artists inducted since it first launched.
- The first three inductees:
  - Jimmie Rodgers
  - Hank Williams
  - Fred Rose

WHAT HAPPENED IN 1963 AND 2001?

“It's not an automatic conclusion that someone will be inducted every year. In 1963, no one received sufficient votes, so no new members were added. But in other years, notably 2001, a dozen new members were inducted because they all received enough votes.”
